

Finance Council

As members and friends of OCUUC we take many religious journeys and Finance Council has the responsibility to manage the church's financial resources so we can have those experiences. Without financial resources or with those resources badly managed, there would be no OCUUC for any of us and perhaps no religious journey for many of us.

Don Martin, VP of Finance

Don chairs all meetings of the Finance Council and has the primary responsibility for all finances of the church. If you have an OCUUC finance question, he is your "go-to" person. He is a longtime UU and a longtime member of this church, as are other members of the council.

Cosme Noriega, Treasurer: His responsibility is to make sure that all of the church's bills are paid on time and he signs about 35 checks each month. Cosme also manages the tax and payroll matters for our staff. The treasurer, VP Finance and the President of the church are the only people who can sign OCUUC checks.

Charles Gordon, Bursar from bursa meaning purse: All collected money goes to Charles and it is his responsibility to put that money into the correct compartment or fund out of the 45 funds in our budget. A few examples of our budget funds are pledge and auction funds, Sunday collection plate, rents, and flowers. You'll find Charles at the Scrip Table (another fund) most Sundays.

Others who sit on the council are the Head Steward, more on the Stewards in another letter, Chair of Ways and Means and Canvass Chair.

A big Thank You to all these people who are serving our church.
